

JOB POSTING

North Island Community Services Society now has an exciting opportunity and is accepting applications for a permanent full-time Child & Youth Mental Health (CYMH) Counsellor, located in Port McNeill. This position provides support services and counselling for youth and at-risk youth with specific life challenges. The duration and depth of service is case specified.

This rewarding position works closely with the individuals, families, schools, Mental Health, and the Ministry to provide support, intervention, education and other services to children and youth groups and individuals.

35 hours a week. Wage is $32.55-34.55 depending on education and experience, plus a comprehensive and competitive benefits package.

Applicants must have a Master's degree in applicable field OR a Certificate in counselling. Must have own vehicle and clear driver's abstract. Clear and recent Ministry of Justice criminal records check and current Level One First Aid certificate.

Interested applicants can send cover letters and resumés via email ed@nicommunityservices.ca

fax to 250-956-4484 or mail to:

North Island Community Services Society

PO Box 1028 Port McNeill, BC V0N 2R0

Please note, only short-listed applicants will be contacted

Position will remain open until filled.

[Pick the date]