Details:

Location: Vancouver Island / Sunshine Coast Elections BC is looking for local leaders to serve as District Electoral Officers (DEOs) and Deputy District Electoral Officers (DDEOs) throughout the province. DEOs and DDEOs plan for and manage provincial elections and by-elections in their local community. • Across British Columbia, DEOs and DDEOs play a critical leadership role in our democracy, ensuring elections are impartial, accessible, and inclusive for all voters. • These positions are part-time during the lead-up to an election, with hours increasing during an election period. Contribute to democracy by leading a diverse team towards a shared goal – a fair and accessible election!

Qualifications & Experience:

- DEOs and DDEOs need experience in project management, building community relationships, leading a diverse workforce, technology and office automation, and material, human and financial resources management.
- DEOs and DDEOs must have excellent judgment and stamina to keep up with a busy election period. In return, their work is varied, challenging and rewarding.
