

Interpreter Seasonal

Port Hardy and North Island
Telegraph Cove

Friday February 6, 2026

$21 - $25/ hour ($23/hr)

Company: The Whale Interpretive Centre

Website: <https://www.killerwhalecentre.org/>

Industry: Other

Remote/Camp Based Job: No

How to apply:

Interested to join the WIC's team this summer? Please send a resume, cover letter, and references to the following email: society@killerwhalecentre.org, attention: Tyra Bain, Manager. Please include in the subject line: Interpreter - First & Last Name. Applications will be considered only if sent to the above email. Please be specific in your application whether you meet the requirements for this position. Only those selected for an interview will be contacted. The Whale Interpretive Centre is committed to employment equity. The WIC strives to be a safe space for everyone and we value and encourage diversity in our team. We strongly encourage candidates who self-identify as Indigenous, members of racialized communities and visible minorities, Persons with disabilities, or members of the Two Spirit (2S) and LGBTQIA+ communities. We look forward to meeting you!

Expiry Date:

Friday, February 20, 2026

Details:

The Whale Interpretive Centre (WIC) is a land-based education centre operated by the Johnstone Strait Killer Whale Interpretive Centre Society, a registered charitable society. The mandate is promoting public awareness of marine mammal conservation. The WIC operates out of Telegraph Cove, BC, a remote coastal community on northeastern Vancouver Island. The Johnstone Strait/Blackfish Sound Archipelago is an ecologically important feeding area for many marine mammals including killer whales and humpback whales. We are looking for a passionate and enthusiastic Interpreter to join the WIC's team this summer! The key responsibility of the Interpreter is:

- To present educational information in a manner that excites and inspires visitors of different ages and backgrounds from around the world. This will be done through one-on-one discussions and structured group presentations (up to 30 persons). Additional responsibilities include:
- Working with staff and volunteers to set up the WIC (e.g., hanging skeletons, organizing the gift shop, setting up displays); • Greeting visitors and processing gift shop transactions; • Maintaining the cleanliness of WIC (e.g., sweeping, cleaning exhibits, disinfecting surfaces, dusting skeletons); • Creating social media posts and text for the monthly newsletter; and • Opportunities to contribute to future exhibits and educational displays.

Qualifications & Experience:

- Passion for the marine environment
- Exceptional interpersonal skills
- Strong attention to detail and self-motivation
- Willingness and a passion for learning
- The ability to explain concepts to a wide range of experience and education levels
- Customer service or cash handling experience preferred but not required as training is provided
- An understanding of marine mammal biology, anatomy, and conservation is an asset (not required as training is provided)
- Must be available to attend training May 29 to June 1 in Port McNeill, BC (4 day, in-person course; cost covered by the employer)
- Must be willing to work weekends and holidays
- Must have own transportation to site and accommodation within the North Island.

The successful candidate must meet the criteria set forth by Canada Summer Jobs:

- Are a Canadian citizen or a permanent resident, or have refugee status in Canada;
- Are legally entitled to work in Canada (have a valid social insurance number); and
- Are between 15 and 30 years of age inclusively at the start of employment.
