Details:

Reporting to the Manager, Strategic Initiatives, the Just Like Home (JLH) Lodge Coordinator at Just Like Home Lodge plays a vital role in providing a haven for patients and their loved ones travelling to Campbell River for specialized care or procedures unavailable in their home communities. The Coordinator also supports the day-to-day operations of the housing units for health professionals coming to Campbell River. This position supports our mission to make Just Like Home a “home-away-from-home,” where guests can find comfort, support one another, and connect through shared experiences during times of need. The Lodge Coordinator is responsible for overseeing the lodge's daily operations, including housekeeping, guest services, facility management, and housing support for healthcare professionals. This role ensures a safe, clean, and welcoming environment, manages room turnover, coordinates supplies, supports volunteers, and maintains service excellence consistent with the values of hospitality and care.

Qualifications & Experience:

Diploma/certificate in hospitality, hotel management, facility operations, or related experience. Minimum 3 years of experience in housekeeping supervision, hotel/lodge operations, or residential facility coordination. Knowledge of cleaning standards, infection control, and occupational health and safety practices preferred
