Join Our Team School District 72 is looking for a First Nations Engagement and Knowledge Specialist to join our Indigenous education team who strive to bring the district's learning beliefs to life. This is a 10-month exempt position that operates while school is in session. School District 72 (Campbell River) is located on the east coast of central Vancouver Island, extending north to Sayward and south to Oyster River. The district also includes the outer islands of Read, Cortes, and Quadra. The district serves over 5,600 students in 18 schools with a diverse range of programs that are progressive and responsive to the educational needs and interests of students. The district respects and values the relationships with all First Nations, Métis, and Inuit peoples who reside in these territories. It is with respectful consideration that the programs and services provided to students and staff acknowledge their histories, cultural contributions, and contemporary concerns.

About the Role Reporting the Director of Indigenous Education, the First Nations Engagement and Knowledge Specialist will use multiple communication mediums to disseminate their local knowledge throughout all levels of the organization. They will collaborate and partner with staff and students to facilitate learning opportunities. The successful candidate will lead with compassion and respect, value strength and diversity and uphold inclusion as a right.

Key Responsibilities

- Partner with educators to facilitate learning on the land.
- Facilitate and plan culturally relevant workshops and learning opportunities.
- Collaborate with a variety of teams and groups including Indigenous and non-Indigenous staff and students to develop and implement language and culture programs in schools.
- Work closely with local First Nations on matters relating to language, culture, customs, protocols, practices, or history of local First Nations, and how they should be integrated into learning environments.
- Support the success of Indigenous learners and contribute to extending Indigenous understanding and knowledge for students, staff and school communities.
- Strengthening connections with Indigenous students, families and local communities.
- Supports a positive and inclusive climate and culture through effective written and verbal communication.
