Details:

The North Island Crisis and Counselling Centre is looking for caring, responsible individuals interested in working part time with adults in a supported, residential recovery setting. The New Beginnings program, commonly referred to as the Green House, is an 11-bed residential facility in Port Hardy supporting adults who are voluntarily working on mental health and substance use recovery. This is a permanent position working the evening weekend shift Saturday and Sunday from 3:00pm to 11:00pm, you will join an already established supportive and skilled team. The main responsibilities include providing a supportive home-like environment for adults experiencing mental health and substance use concerns by providing day to day support, meals and keeping a tidy and organized facility in a supportive and respectful environment. This is a voluntary sober facility. The facility is operated 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. This posting is for the Saturday and Sunday evening shift only (3pm to 11pm) Working stat holidays will be required. A generous benefit package is offered for this position.
