

Supported Child Development Consultant Part-Time

Campbell River Region
Campbell River

Tuesday July 7, 2026

$31 - $40/ hour ($38.68 per hour)

Company: Rivercity Inclusion Society

Industry: Social Services

How to apply:

Visit <https://rivercityinclusion.ca/external-posting/supported-child-development-consultant/> and apply via portal

Expiry Date:

Tuesday, July 21, 2026

Details:

Nature of Position Rivercity Inclusion Society is a non-profit organization whose purpose is to advocate and provide services for people with developmental needs, and their families, who live in the Campbell River area. Our Dogwood Place Child & Youth Development Centre offers a family-centered approach to children and youth who need extra support. The Supported Child Development Consultant supports children, birth to 12 years of age, with developmental delay or disability to fully participate in inclusive regulated child care programs. The role supports the inclusion of children who require additional support in child care setting chosen by their families. Hours of work will be Tuesday - Thursday 8:30am-4:00pm and Friday from 8:30am -3:30pm. Flexibility may also be required depending on client needs
Union Status: BCGEU Own Vehicle Requirement: Yes

Qualifications & Experience:

Requirements: •Bachelor's degree in early childhood education, social work, counselling, or related field of study •Minimum 3 years work experience in inclusive child care and the community social services sector with a demonstrated working knowledge of family centered service, early intervention, child development, family support and community-based services •Knowledge of community child care resources and other community support services
•Experience in adult training fundamentals preferred •First Aid Certificate •Valid Class 5 driver's license •Consent to criminal record check •Negative TB test results
Qualifications / Knowledge / Skills: •Strong oral and written communication and organizational skills •Effective team work skills •Ability to work independently and to manage time and work load effectively •Ability to maintain confidentiality
•Ability to maintain a positive, professional, non-judgmental attitude •Knowledge of community child care resources and other community support services •Intermediate computer skills •Ability to administering a range of formal and informal developmental assessment tools
