Position: Thrift Store Clerk Status: Casual / Part-Time Location: Port McNeill, BC
Closing date: Open until filled About NICSS North Island Community Services Society (NICSS) is a non-profit and registered charity established in 1978. For more than 40 years, NICSS has delivered a wide range of community-based programs throughout the North Island region. With over 30 staff members operating 15 programs, as well as numerous special projects and community events, NICSS plays a vital role in supporting individuals and families across the Regional District of Mount Waddington. Our Second Look Thrift Store plays an important role in that mission. Proceeds from the store help fund NICSS programs, provide local education bursaries, and support initiatives such as the WHY (We'll Help You) hospital care packs. Every purchase and donation helps make a difference.
Summary of the Role We are currently seeking a friendly, enthusiastic, and community-minded Thrift Store Clerk to join our casual/part-time team.
