Details:

Donation/Receiving Volunteer is a position that receives, organizes and prepares donations for sale. We ask that you commit to a regular schedule of at least two volunteers shifts per month. Shifts are 2 – 6 hours, depending on volunteers' availability. This is a rewarding volunteer experience for a service-oriented person who wants to make a difference in our little thrift store. All proceeds go directly to programs and services provided by the Campbell River and North Island Transition Society. KEY RESPONSIBILITIES: • Greeting donors at the back door. • Letting customers know what we can and can not accept as donations. • Directing customers on where to place items. • Answering phone calls. • Helping customers with items that are in our display case or for sale behind the counter. • Keeping the front area tidy and clean.

Qualifications & Experience:

All CRNITS volunteer roles require the following: • Ability to work well in a busy environment. • Ability to multitask. • Able to work from a feminist perspective. • Required to submit a criminal record check. Transitions Store: • It is helpful for the volunteer to be able to greet donors in a friendly manner. • Use discernment when receiving and/or declining donations. • Stand for long periods of time. • Work as part of a team. • Able to take direction.
