Details:

The Sales Service (Stock/Cashier) position is primarily responsible for providing physical assistance in moving merchandise between sales and stock areas, handling general inquiries, general housekeeping, as well as other related customer service duties including processing sales transactions. This position is key in the company's ability to fulfill our mission statement, which is to provide a superior shopping experience every day. London Drugs places great value on the Sales Service position as it is a primary source of contact with our customers. As such, previous experience in a customer service role will be an asset (consideration will be given to those applicants with related, non-work, experience). We offer advancement opportunities through our promote-from-within policies, as well as the following comprehensive benefits program. Starting pay will fall within the salary range indicated and may vary based on job-related experience, knowledge and education. •Comprehensive, optional medical, dental, prescription drug and vision coverage for you and your family (Ensuring you and your family are taken care of) •Company matched RRSPs (Helping you plan for your future) •Employee Discount Program (Sharing our success) •Ongoing In-House Training & Education Courses (Lifelong learning) •Employee Family Assistance Program (Free confidential counseling and support) •Employee Recognition Program (Tangible rewards for great work!) •Community Involvement (Giving back to our communities) Applicants should be available to work a flexible schedule, Monday to Sunday, including evenings and weekends. If you possess the necessary skills and expertise and would like to join an exciting team of professionals

Qualifications & Experience:

In addition to the above duties, this is a customer service position which requires a great deal of customer contact. Accordingly, you must be able to work effectively in a fast paced environment while at the same time providing quality service in a professional, courteous, and helpful manner. You will have a high degree of social skills (courteous, sincere, articulate, well groomed), the ability to work with a sense of urgency, combined with a high level of tolerance while interacting with the public, and a mature, positive and helpful attitude. If you have experience in merchandising, the ability to work with a sense of urgency combined with good customer service skills then we have the opportunity for you to excel
