

Child and Youth Care Worker (CYCW)
Fulltime

Inter Tribal Health Authority (ITHA) a multi-disciplinary health organization providing services to 29 member First Nations on Vancouver Island based in Nanaimo, British Columbia is seeking an Child and Youth Care Worker.

ITHA provides Maternal Child Health and FASD Support services to ten First Nations Communities on Vancouver Island. The CYCW will develop creative service plans and have well developed program implementation skills. THE CYCW will support our children to build meaningful social and life skills, with an emphasis on using cultural tools.

Building meaningful social and life skills, as well as positive relationships with the children, youth and community, makes you a successful member of a dedicated team. Applicants will be conscientious, resourceful, team-oriented and flexible.

Experience:

Diploma/Degree in Child and Youth Care (or equivalent) and a minimum of three (3) years' experience working with families at the community level. The ideal candidate will have a strong understanding of complex needs, challenging behaviours and developmental disabilities related to FASD and other challenges.

There may be significant travel to support our families up and down the island, a valid driver's licence is required.

At ITHA you will enjoy a work life balance in a business casual environment.

ITHA offers an excellent total compensation package and RRSP matching plan. In addition to your entitled vacation the office is closed during the Christmas holidays. This is a great opportunity to make a difference in ITHA member communities. Please send your resume and cover letter by e-mail to hr@itha.ca or by fax at 250-591-2169. Please refer to the position title when submitting your application.

The posting will be open until the position filled.

We thank all applicants for their interest, however, only those who are short-listed will be contacted for an interview.
