

Civil Technologist

Highland Engineering Services Ltd.

Campbell River, BC

Website: www.highland-eng.ca

highland@highland-eng.ca

Highland is looking for a qualified candidate with a minimum of 3 years' experience in civil and municipal services design.

The person selected will work under the direction of an engineering team within a well-established engineering practice in Campbell River, located in central/northern Vancouver Island.

Roles & Responsibilities

- Civil engineering design work, from conception to detailed construction drawings through to construction.
- Inspection of civil construction

Qualifications & Experience

- Experience with AutoCAD & Civil 3D is a must and surveying skills will also be an asset.
- 3 years' progressive experience in civil and municipal services design.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Attention to detail, high productivity and a team player.
- Strong time management skills
- Preferred – Registered or eligible for registration with ASTTBC
- Required – Class 5 BC driver's license

Company Background

Highland Engineering Services Ltd. is a well-established engineering practice located in Campbell River servicing central and northern Vancouver Island. The company participates in a wide variety of civil engineering and project management assignments which are undertaken by a staff of experienced professionals and technologists. We offer a competitive salary and benefits, access to profit sharing and continuing professional development opportunities.

Additional Information

Campbell River offers unparalleled access to unlimited recreational opportunities, from fishing and hunting to hiking, biking and skiing, not to mention the best diving in the world. Campbell River has it all with the waters of Discovery Passage at our shoreline and majestic mountains as a backdrop. The community has affordable housing and a high growth rate ensuring a long-term, stable and rewarding employment opportunity.