

Controller

Logging company in Campbell River area requires a controller to fill a position created by retirement. Applicants should be well experienced in cost accounting, payroll, accounts payable and preparation of financial statements. The ideal candidate will possess:

- Several years related experience with strong organizational and administrative skills.
- Good computer knowledge and skills with proficiency in Excel, accounting software and social media
- Good oral and written communication skills. Ability to communicate to a target audience.
- Ability to work independently, embrace change, meet deadlines and manage priorities.
- Experience in the Forest Industry an asset.

The position is full time and based in Campbell River. Some flexibility is available for remote work.

The position carries a competitive remuneration package and benefits.

Interested candidates are invited to submit application to forestemployment@gmail.com