Position Responsibilities include:

- ◆ Establish relationships with Nuu-chah-nulth families, and support family through counselling
- ◆ Work collaboratively with a cross-section of service providers/partners (i.e., mental health and child & family services) in developing effective, strength-based and culturally comprehensive support plans
- ◆ Liaise with NTC Staff, Elders and other resources in reuniting and supporting families
- ◆ Develop and facilitate educational workshops and training (i.e., child development, communication, and parenting skills)
- ◆ Collect case data, and maintain administrative records and reports
- ◆ Support wellness by coordinating family fun activities with local community resources

Preferred Qualifications:

- ◆ Degree in Human Services and 3 to 5 years of professional experience (ideally working with children and families)
- ◆ Understanding of family reunification dynamics, child development, addiction on families, individuals, communities
- ◆ Knowledge of trauma-informed service practice, complex and intergenerational trauma
- ◆ Possess a compassionate and friendly personality, and able to work under pressure
- ◆ Knowledge of Nuu-chah-nulth governance, culture and traditions considered an asset
- ◆ Computer literate and comfortable using technology in the workplace
- ◆ Must have a car and valid driver's licence
- ◆ Provide acceptable references and criminal record check
