

Fence Construction Worker

Character Qualities

Respectful – to team members, customers, and company equipment

Professional – take pride in quality work, maintain clean jobsite, and follow dress code

Performance – diligent, show up on time, willing to learn, do more than just what you're told

Personal – no swearing, no smoking on jobsite, around vehicles, shop, or team members

Growth – willing to work with and learn from everybody – old or young

Job Description

Digging holes, wheeling concrete, carrying supplies, constructing custom fences, loading supplies, many other related tasks

Need safety toe footwear, durable clothes, rain gear

Nail belt and tools not a requirement right away – can supply most of this

8:00 – 4:30 Monday to Friday Weekends and holidays off

Paid holidays

Notes

We supply hard hats and safety vests when required

We offer company discounts at Ono Safety clothing store

Employee discount on lumber

BC Transit bus connection right at our location

Forklift training included – Certification training when Covid allows

Multi-cultural company

Construction experience is an asset - character and attitude are much more important

We work hard in all weather and work conditions, we work as a great team to support each other and keep a happy and friendly environment. Work hard and have fun!

We work on many custom and unique projects and find satisfaction in being the best of the best.

