

Island Health is actively seeking experienced Food Service Workers across Vancouver Island.

This is your opportunity to be a part of a diverse team while providing care in an interesting and unique way. We have kitchens in many health care facilities across the island which encompasses long term and acute care hospitals. You can be an instrumental part of this team and make a real difference.

We are looking for casual Food Service Workers to fill current employees' vacation time, sick days and leaves. This is a great opportunity to join the Island Health team on a casual basis, and build your seniority that could lead to part-time or full-time positions.

In this role, you will be part of the dynamic Food Services team. Positions at this level perform a variety of duties within Food Services Operations such as portioning and serving meals, washing and peeling vegetables and fruit, preparing items such as tea, coffee and toast, and washing dishes and utensils.
