Call for Healthy Living Elder's Coordinator

JOB TITLE: Healthy Living Elders' Coordinator

Reports to: KHD Health Director

Kwakiutl Band Council – Health is seeking a motivated and experienced Healthy Living Elders Coordinator to work at the Health Centre in Fort Rupert – just outside of Port Hardy, BC. Hours are 25 hours per week; salary to commensurate with experience. This is a one year term part-time position. The Healthy Living Elders' Coordinator works closely with the Health Team and others to promote holistic community health & wellness for our Elders and aging population. The focus is on preventative health strategies to promote the health and well-being of Elders and aging population within our community and to build relationships and connections with other Kwakiutl community members through a diverse range of programs: cultural, recreational, Elder development and education. Specific focus is also on promoting Kwakiutl language, culture and traditions with other community age populations.

Applicants are strongly encouraged to review the job description prior to applying, which can be obtained from Marie Hunt, Health Director. Applicants must submit a cover letter, 3 references, and a resume no later than midnight, April 7, 2017 to Marie Hunt, Health Director, at marie.hunt@kwakiutl.bc.ca or fax (250) 902-2246. Or submit in person to Andreika Hunt, Reception at the Health Centre, Attn: Marie Hunt. Preference may be given to qualified applicants who are of Aboriginal ancestry and applicants with one or more years of direct experience with Elders. Class 4 driver's license is strongly preferred. We regret that only those selected for an interview will be contacted. We thank all applicants for their interest.
