

Insulation Support Technician

Coastal Pacific Insulation Ltd. is looking to add a rockstar to our team!

Does your current line of work make you feel like "another brick in the wall" or "just a cog in the machine"? Maybe it's time to consider working in a field where you'll be able to see the result of your work. (Who knows? It might be life-changing.)

Who we are:

Coastal Pacific Insulation has been serving the Comox Valley & Nanaimo for over 17 years. As Vancouver Island's premier insulation company with thousands of happy homes & customers, our focus has always been on striving towards excellence.

What we're looking for:

- A motivated individual who's dynamic, dependable, personable, and comfortable on a job site
- You enjoy physical work & working with your hands
- You want to be an important part of a team that can meet and excel challenges under pressure & sometimes tight deadlines
- You're quick to learn new skills & concepts, and you don't mind taking constructive criticism
- You're a person that doesn't just sit on the shores of life, rather, an action taker ready to tackle new challenges daily
- You're seeking something meaningful like comradery & team building

What you'll do:

- Install batt insulation into wall, ceiling & other assorted building cavities
- Install/Roll/Tack Down polyethylene vapor barrier (poly)
- Install acoustic sealant, window & door backer rod + thermoplastic caulking
- Fill exterior penetrations with canned spray foam & tape wire penetrations
- Assist main installers with jobs
- Train/Learn from experienced installers on the team
- Job site clean-up & other various tasks to help the team succeed

What to expect:

- Training wage starts at $20/hr & candidates that excel can expect up to $25+/hr
- 8 hour days - 5 days a week minimum
- Driver's License/Vehicle - Not mandatory, but candidates with DL will be given priority
- Willing to train the right candidate, even if you have no insulation experience
- Please do not call us regarding this job posting, we are extremely busy! (Email Only)
