MATERNITY - Intermediate Teacher Job Position

Are you looking for an exciting challenge want to work in a beautiful northern community where the seafood is fresh and the air is clean? Then apply to Wagalus School in Port Hardy, British Columbia!

Applicants are invited to apply for a Maternity Leave Intermediate Teacher position for the 2020-2021 school year including the end of May – end of June 2020. As the school grows, there is possibility of full-time hire. We are looking for a multi talented teacher who has teaching abilities that will provide support to student academics, culture and language, fine arts and athletics. The candidate should also have good routines to create a well-managed environment for the students to learn in.

Wagalus School is located in Fort Rupert Village on the northern coast of Vancouver Island; this unique school serves approximately 60+ students. The school strives to provide educational services to ensure every member of our community is part of our teaching/learning team. We appreciate and celebrate individual uniqueness and actively support students and staff in a quest for excellence in all that we do.

We have beautiful school facility with the entrance designed like a traditional big house that is the “heart of the school”. Our School provides grades preschool to seven, and it is governed by a strong school philosophy of care, love and respect for each and every member of our community.

If you are a strong, adventurous, creative teacher who enjoys a challenge, enjoys working as part of a school team, and who most importantly loves working with students, then this position will be of interest to you.
