

Are you 17–30 years old and looking for engaging work this summer?

Cortes Island Museum is looking for a Host Interpreter.

Museum Host Interpreter

Are you 17–30 years old and looking for engaging work this summer?

Cortes Island Museum is looking for a Host Interpreter.

- Where: Cortes Island Museum, 957 Beesley Road
- Date: Mid-June (flexible) through the end of August (or longer)
- Wage & Hours: $23.00/hour, 35 hours/week
- Position: Welcome visitors, share information about exhibitions and programs, and provide customer service at our Visitor Info booth and shop. The work setting is relaxed and lively, offering an excellent opportunity to learn about museums and local history, meet people, and get involved in special events. Training and mentorship are provided.

Funded by Canada Summer Jobs, this position offers excellent opportunities to build skills tailored to future careers in museums, natural history centres, education, visitor services, event planning, and more!

Have questions and want to chat? Call the Museum at 250-935-6340.

We value diversity and inclusivity and welcome applications from individuals of all abilities and backgrounds. To apply, please submit your resume to “cimas@cortesmuseum.com” with “Summer Host Application” in the subject line. Candidates will be interviewed as applications are received. Positions will remain open until filled. Interviews may be conducted in person or virtually.

Secure accommodation on Cortes Island is considered an asset, though affordable options may also be available.

Learn more about Cortes Island Museum & Archives!

Explore our website, www.cortesmuseum.com, visit us on Facebook, <https://www.facebook.com/CimasCortes/>, or come in person to Wild Cortes, 1255 Seaford Road, or to Cortes Island Museum, 957 Beesley Road. We are open now on Fridays and Saturdays from noon to 4 p.m.

<https://cortesmuseum.com/about-us/job-opportunities/>