

North Island Career opportunity!

Director, Indigenous Health (222687)

Campbell River Hospital (CGH) Hourly Salary Range: $59.79 - $85.95

Island Health is seeking a collaborative, visionary leader to guide Indigenous Health programs across Vancouver Island. This role provides strategic direction, strengthens relationships with Indigenous communities, advances cultural safety and anti-racism, and supports Indigenous-led approaches to health and wellness. The Director oversees regional operations, budgeting, planning, quality improvement, and partnerships aligned with UNDRIP, TRC Calls to Action, and Island Health's commitments to reconciliation.

Key Responsibilities:

- Lead Indigenous Health strategy, operations, and service delivery
- Foster Indigenous self-determination, community partnerships, and culturally safe care
- Manage budgets, teams, planning, evaluation, and quality improvement
- Collaborate across Island Health to improve Indigenous patient experiences and outcomes
- Support research, education, and system-wide change

Qualifications:

- Priority given to self-identified Indigenous (First Nations, Métis, and/or Inuit) candidates.
- Master's degree (health field or MBA)
- 7+ years senior leadership in health care
- Strong experience working with Indigenous communities
- Deep knowledge of cultural safety, UNDRIP, TRC, and Indigenous health needs
