

Skilled Carpenter

Supermod is a modern modular home building company with a commitment of softening our environmental footprint through design, construction and installation of prefab modular home. We pride ourselves on being innovators, with unique designs and construction methods, ensuring our buildings are sustainable, aesthetic and efficient.

Our staff is what make us a success and keep us focused on our commitment. If you would like to be part of this team, we have the following full-time position available in our Construction department:

Skilled Carpenter

Reporting to the Construction Manager, you will carry out advanced construction tasks, including the operation of powered equipment.

Responsibilities:

- Carries out construction tasks as a part of the project construction team, including but not limited to, rough carpentry, finish carpentry, fixture installation, partition installation, layouts, drawing review, etc.
- Operates small power equipment as necessary to complete assigned tasks
- Maintain a safe, clean and organized condition works site
- Supports the aims and objectives of Struct Steel
- Complies with all health and safety program

Qualifications / Physical Demands:

- This position can be physically demanding.
- Experience is required, good attention to detail, strong communication skills, customer service and the ability to follow direction is essential.
- Must be a team player
- Must have excellent communication and organizational skills, including the ability to read and understand construction drawings
- Customer service orientated
- Reliable transportation as project locations vary.

If you are a highly motivated and experienced individual we invite you to send your resume, in confidence. Please quote the position title in the subject line and respond by Email. PHONE INQUIRIES will NOT BE ACCEPTED. Applicants are thanked in advance and advised that only individuals selected for interviews will be contacted.